

General Manager Cacao Production (m/f/d)

Our client is a leading producer of chocolate. The company operates several thousand hectares of cacao in Central America in an integrated systems approach. The mission of our client is to develop new sustainable production systems for cacao production which respects social, economic and environmental requirements while providing a unique taste experience. Interested in shaping the future of cacao production? Then contact us now!

What you can expect:

- Manage the modern and innovative large-scale operation
- Optimize all stages of the production process and logistics
- Foster international benchmarking and knowledge exchange
- Professional cost and budget management
- Promote highly aligned performance across the functional departments
- Relationship management with local stakeholders and authorities
- Implement appropriate sustainability concepts
- Attractive salary and lodging on site

What is required:

- BSc/MSc in agricultural sciences
- Minimum 10 years as a farm manager of high value crops
- Experience in tropical or subtropical agriculture a plus
- Leadership expertise of large-scale farms with functional department structure
- Strong communicator and networker
- Entrepreneurship
- Open-mindedness and innovation focus
- Pioneering mentality
- Excellent English and solid Spanish language skills
- Willingness to live on farm in Central America

Interested? – Just call: • Dr. Tobias Wronka • Tel. +49 151 122 631 33 or send your application to • tobias.wronka@agriassociates.de • www.agriassociates.de

