

Area Sales Manager France (m/f/d) - Farm Machinery

Are you passionate about sales of innovative farm machinery? Our client is a steadily growing, family-owned manufacturer of high-performance harvesting equipment with a strong international footprint. To further expand the French market, we are seeking a technically skilled and entrepreneurial sales professional. If you are looking for an autonomous role with real market impact, we look forward to hearing from you.

What you can expect:

- Full responsibility for sales development in the French market
- Acquisition of new customers and expansion of the dealer network
- Market and competitor analysis to identify growth opportunities
- Organization and execution of field demonstrations and machine adjustments
- Representation of the company at trade fairs and industry events
- Home-office based role with attractive compensation and long-term prospects

What is required:

- Degree or vocational training in agriculture
- Solid technical knowledge of agricultural equipment
- Proven sales experience in France
- Strong communication and networking skills
- Independent, structured and entrepreneurial work style
- Hands-on mentality and willingness to travel regularly
- Fluent French and good English skills
